

Amsterdam, 7 December 2009

MORE CQC IN THE NETHERLANDS IN 2010

VERONICA ORDERS NEW SERIES OF EYEWORCS' INTERNATIONAL HIT FORMAT

Dutch Comcaster Veronica, part of the SBS/Pro 7 group, has ordered a second season of CQC (Caiga Quien Caiga, Eyeworks Cuatro Cabezas' hit newscast). The first season of the local version of CQC recently came to a close in the Netherlands after 13 episodes. Previously, the format has been launched in Argentina, Spain, Chile, Italy, Portugal and Brazil, among others. After the incredible run the format has had in several territories, with 8 Emmy award nominations and numerous renewals in several territories, CQC had a successful first run in the Netherlands, achieving above the station average in all target groups.

About CQC

CQC is a weekly news roundup that takes a humorous and ironic approach to current affairs, show business and sports. A program that makes fun of reality and pushes beyond what is expected. Each week, a trio of relentless hosts presents the most original stories to show reality in a unique way, far from your every day newscast. A truly high rating cult phenomenon!

About Eyeworks

Eyeworks was founded in The Netherlands in 2001 by Reinout Oerlemans. Eyeworks is a creative, independent and all round television production company that develops, produces and distributes television programs in different genres including sport, fiction and entertainment. Nowadays Eyeworks has a production presence in 15 countries on 4 different continents: The Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, the UK, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Argentina, Chile, Brazil, New Zealand, Australia and the US. Television formats of Eyeworks are broadcast in more than 50 countries worldwide. Eyeworks Sport produces major sport events for multiple broadcasters in the Netherlands, including the football matches for the Dutch Premier League and the National team. Eyeworks Fiction titles include the Oscar winning Antonia's Line and The Alzheimer Case. Recent feature films include productions such as Storm Force, The Letter for the King, A Woman goes to the Doctor, Dossier K, and The Happy Housewife (release spring 2010). Eyeworks' police series Cops is one of the best rated TV series, with over 100 episodes aired in the Benelux.

Eyeworks Distribution is dedicated to the worldwide licensing of formats and finished programming from the combined catalogues of all Eyeworks affiliates as well as third party formats. Internationally successful formats include Test The Nation, The Chair, The 10, Miss Popularity, So You Wannabe A Popstar, CQC (Caiga Quien Caiga), Ticket to the Tribes, Who Wants to Marry my Son, Generation 10, Women on the Edge (Maitena), I Know What You Did Last Friday, The Italian Dream, Beat The Blondes and Heads or Tails.

Note to editor, for more information:

Xandra van der Meer
E: xandra@eyeworks.tv
T: 020 346 37 05
M: 06 200 19 319
www.eyeworks.tv